

Date 10 Dec. 2016. Black Sugarloaf, Birralelee (home).

Habitat: Eucalypt forest.

Substrate bark of Eucalyptus delegatensis (the tree was felled in 2014). Description two large tufts of cylindrical sporangia, 60 mm & 80 mm wide x 7–12 mm high, reddish brown.

Stalk 2–5 mm long, black and shiny; red in transmitted light, hollow. Hypothallus contiguous under group, silvery, shiny. Peridium fugacious. Columella almost reaches apex of sporangia. Capillitium internal net sparse, surface net of large and small meshes. Spores reddish brown in mass, brown in transmitted light, distinctly punctate, 8–9  $\mu\text{m}$ .

Notes Common at Black Sugarloaf.

